

STRUCTURE OF communication

Establishing a communication structure between your Sorority/Fraternity and Foundation maintains a healthy relationship, creates a guideline for both organizations and ensures that your membership/donors have a positive experience no matter who the communication originates from.

